January 2006

Events in chronological order grouped by Month.

Links to months. Show next 12 months.

Webinar: DITA Directions: Topic-Oriented Single-Source Publishing for the Web and Beyond
11-January-2006
10:00 AM - 11:00 AM PST
Join Idiom Technologies, the Gilbane Report, and Blast Radius at this informative webinar that will explore how DITA can be extended and utilized for other single-source publishing projects, including the Web.
www.xmetal.com

Some events (e.g. Webinars) show Time + Time Zone. Time Zone should be at submitter's discretion; i.e. not derived. This field can be a simple text field – no need to make it a Time field.

Title (Hyperlinked to event site)

Training Class: Structured Writing for Single Sourcing
January 25–26, 2006
Austin, TX
Sponsored by the JoAnn Hackos Workshop Series.
www.comtech-serv.com/workshops/singlesource.shtml

Event Type (Webinar, Conference, Training Class, etc.

Non-virtual events show location (City + State/Prov)

February 2006

Webinar: Idiom & Documentum – A Single Content Repository Strategy for Globalization
February 01, 2006
1:00 PM - 2:00 P.M. EST
Documentum customers are already familiar with Documentum's "single repository strategy for enterprise content management". But how does one apply the single repository approach globally? Learn how Idiom WorldServer's integration with Documentum enables this approach.
www.idiominc.com/news/events.asp#1

Date of event. Can be a single date or a range (Start Date/End Date). Use Start Date to determine Month.

Training Class: Structured Writing for Single Sourcing
February 21–22, 2006
Redmond, WA.
Sponsored by the JoAnn Hackos Workshop Series.
www.comtech-serv.com/workshops/singlesource.shtml

Description (Max. 150 words)

March 2006

Conference: DITA 2006
March 23 - 26, 2006
Raleigh, North Carolina
Come hear Dave Schell, Michael Priestley, Susan Carpenter, and other key DITA personnel present on the Darwin Information Typing Architecture!
www.travelthepath.com/dita2006.html

Event link. Same link as used for Title.

April 2006

Done